Northwestern High School Trojan Club Scholarship

INFORMATION

THE TROJAN CLUB SCHOLARSHIP

The Trojan Club Inc. offers a scholarship to one male and one female athlete. The scholarship is a one time award given to each recipient at Northwestern Honors Day. The money will be paid directly to the higher institution of the student's choice.

ELIGIBILITY AND REQUIREMENTS

The purpose of the Trojan Club Scholarship is to encourage and recognize deserving Northwestern High School Athletes.

1. Enrolling college freshman at an approved four or two year college to include technical colleges.
2. Academic excellence (transcript: including SAT score including Critical Reading and Math of at least 850 or ACT score of at least 18)
3. Grade point average of at least 2.5 based on the Uniform Grading Scale.
4. Nomination by a Northwestern High School coach.
5. Recommendation from a Northwestern High School Teacher.
6. Participation in one varsity sport for at least two (2) years. Varsity sports include cheerleading and participation includes sport trainers, managers and statistician.
7. A one page essay (in the student's handwriting) on the topic " Why the Trojan Club Scholarship is important to the success of my future career ".
8. Financial need may be a determining factor.

APPLICATION

Application forms for the Trojan Club Scholarship may be obtained in the guidance office.

Students wishing to apply for the scholarship should fill out the application, obtain a nomination from a coach, and the necessary recommendations. Coaches should encourage students to apply for the scholarship by making unsolicited nominations.

NOTIFICATION OF SELECTION

The recipients will be publicly recognized at the Northwestern High School Honors Day program.

DEADLINE

Applications, nominations, recommendations and essays should be received by the scholarship selection committee by April 15. Students may give them to the Senior Guidance Counselor in charge of scholarships. The students chosen for the scholarships must be accepted in a college before the scholarship is granted. The scholarship will be paid directly to the college to be credited towards tuition or other college expenses.
